Att'n: Mr. Foster E. Mohrhardt, Director

I, Max F. Wilhelmi, warrant to the extent of the purchase price that the seeds I sell are as described on the container, within reasonable tolerances, I give no other or further warranty, express or implied.

Dear Sir:

I have your favor of the 28th requesting that I send you my Catalogs and other trade lists.

This is to advise that the nature of my business as a Bean Grower for the jobbing and produce shipper trade is such that I have never found it advisable to issue a Catalog. The only thing I issue is a price list to the trade at the time I contract to grow Beans and Peas for my customers and I endeavor to grow only an acreage sufficient to fill orders placed with me by my customers, therefore, after crops are harvested I am usually sold out with the exception of odds and ends and usually find it unnecessary to issue a later price list.

I am enclosing one of my lists showing the varieties I am in position to produce for the trade and am sorry to say this is the only thing I have to file with you in your Library.

I will keep your name on my list and will send you contract lists and further lists from time to time as they are issued.

Yours very truly,

Max F. Wilhelmi
